Georgia pulls solar panels

Overview

Georgia BRIGHT's Solar for All program, offering free solar panels to low-income households, was defunded after the EPA repealed the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund. The program aimed. Georgia BRIGHT, a statewide initiative to deliver affordable solar, kicked off its "No-Cost Solar Plan" in Atlanta yesterday, giving qualified homeowners a shot at roughly 400 fully prepaid rooftop-solar systems with zero upfront or maintenance costs. According to The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, leaders launched a "Solar for All" program earlier this month that allows lower-income. From home installation and our buy back program, to non-installation options, our goal is to make solar an option for every Georgia Power customer. Learn more about our behind-the-meter solar programs, including the new Renewable and Nonrenewable Resources (RNR) program, and how to interconnect. At present, solar energy accounts for only about 4. 24% of Georgia's electricity production. So, if Georgia Power intends to meet Southern Company's commitment to net zero emissions, it will need to add far more than the proposed limits to new solar power.
