Who should I contact for warranty of photovoltaic panels

Overview

In the unfortunate event of needing to make a warranty claim for your solar panels, following the steps is crucial to ensure a smooth process. The initial step is to promptly contact the solar panel manufacturer or the installer who installed your solar system. Even after reviewing extensive documentation, deciphering the disparities between warranties offered by different manufacturers can seem like comparing apples to oranges. Panels work under tough conditions—scorching heat, freezing winters, hail, heavy winds, and daily UV exposure, yet most solar panels. While solar energy systems are built to withstand decades of outdoor use, the right warranty coverage assures extra peace of mind by protecting your investment against potential malfunctions, damage, or underperformance. These warranties are a safety net - but they don't cover everything. And certain actions might even void your coverage.
